OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT:— Grant of some allowance to the newly built Eswara temple at Bidadi-

LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 625 dated 11th Sept. 1902 form the Dy Commissioner Bangalore district-

---

In his petition addressed to H.H. the Maharajah, which was forwarded to this Office for disposal with the Private Secretary's No 130 of 8th Sept 1902, one Lingaseth Kallu Setti of Bidadi prayed for some help to the newly constructed Eswara temple at Bidadi.

= From the Vernacular papers received with the Dy Commissioner's letter cited above, it appears that the petitioner has constructed a new temple in Bidadi at a cost of nearly Rs 700; and as the temple of Eswara is new,

it has not many devotees, the pete himself performing the services therein. The Dy Amildar who has seen the temple reports that for the neivedya in the temple a daily allowance of half a seer of rice with condiments may be given to the temple

The Dy Commissioner - recommends the grant from the Chatram at Bidadi -

Submitted.

Subject to the Revenue

I regret to say that I am not able to support this recommendation - A private party who goes to the expense of building a temple must think beforehand whether he is able to maintain it.
The diversion of Chattram proceeds for such purposes should be discouraged
